"World Wanderers"

Looking for Interesting People and Places

Given that our masthead each week suggests that we are all would-be travelers, "wandering" through life and taking in various points of interest and fascinating faces, we're kick-starting a new occasional feature here in the pages of The Wanderer this week. Sparked by the accompanying photo of Tim Lynch, currently enlisted in the U.S. Navy and one of our faithful weekly readers, we struck on the idea of showcasing our own legion of "wanderers" who take to reading their favorite source of local news even when they're away from home.

All you need to do is take a recent copy of our publication with you when you're away on business or vacation and snap a photo of yourself in front of an interesting or noteworthy landmark with our namesake. Then, mail us the print or a digital photo on disc (JPEG or TIFF format please), or e-mail the candid to us c/o The Wanderer, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. Our e-mail address is aardvark@wanderer.com. Be sure to include some details about yourself and when and where the picture was taken.

We hope this will provide a forum to showcase some interesting sites outside the tri-town area ... and give people a chance to take a little piece of local flavor with them to other parts of the world. We're looking forward to your submissions and contributions.

Our first pioneer Tim is seen here holding a past issue of The Wanderer from a location somewhere in the Persian Gulf. Behind him is the USS George Washington (CVN-73).

Lights, Camera, Action!

ORR Donation Supports TV Program

Most people in the tri-town area know Debbie Stinson of ATT Broadband Channel 9 as the lady with the camera. What few people other than the students and staff of Old Rochester Regional High School know, is the countless hours Ms. Stinson has spent working with students over the past two years to make BULLDOG TV possible.

Now, thanks to her many hours of service to the school, ATT Broadband (formerly MediaOne), has donated $600 to Old Rochester Regional High School for the purchase of technology to support the program.

The donation was awarded through a MediaOne program entitled COOL (Community Outreach and Online Learning). BULLDOG TV has served as a means of supporting students' interest in the technology while providing training and a vehicle by which students could bring news about the school to the community via cable. In addition to taping, students produce and edit segments on school equipment and at the station. Ms. Stinson serves as technical advisor, training the students on equipment and overseeing productions taped and edited at Channel 9.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

October 2, 2000

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, October 2 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Paul Lambalot. Also present were Selectman Barry Denham and Secretary Melody Pacheco. Selectman Raymond Andrews and Executive Secretary Carol Adams were not present for the meeting.

There being no minutes to review and approve, the board signed vouchers and bills for the week and then unanimously voted to sign and approve a Memorandum of Agreement for State Highway Work in Mattapoisett, or so-called Chapter 90 state money, in a total allotment of $108,433.35 — $54,216.67 of which was allocated under Chapter 53B and $54,216.67 under Chapter 150.

Above: Debbie Stinson of ATT Broadband (Channel 9) recently presented a check to the ORR High School Principal in the amount of $600 for the purchase of new technology for the school's BULLDOG TV program. The money was acquired through the COOL (Community Outreach and Online Learning) program.

Under meetings slated for the week, Chairman Lambalot noted that all town offices will be closed on Monday, October 9 in observance of Columbus Day and there will be no Selectmen's Meeting that night. On Tuesday, October 17 a Special Town Election will be held at Old Hammondtown School from 10:00 am to 8:00 pm to affirm the vote taken at the recent Special Town Meeting regarding the purchase of the Eel Pond property.

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Ms. Pacheco advised the board that they should consider allowing Mattapoisett establishments which hold an Alcoholic Beverage Common Victualler's License to remain open until 2:00 pm on New Year's Eve as done in the past. In the event that a problem should arise, the Mattapoisett Police Department will be instructed to close the establishment early. Ms. Pacheco added this would only effect a couple of restaurants and there have been no problems with this practice in the past. With that, the board unanimously voted to allow this additional opening for such Mattapoisett businesses.

The board also unanimously voted to appoint Dana P. Collyer of North Street to the Mattapoisett Fire Department upon a recommendation from Fire Chief Ronald Scott, for a term to expire 2001; and noted that the • Minutes of the recent emPOWERment meeting from Joseph Slattery.

At 7:15 pm the board met with Monika Weldon and husband Peter Belanger, owners of Spring Meadow Farm located at 109 Marion Road, to address some of the concerns raised at the last Selectmen's meeting by neighbor Jeanne McIntosh-Snodgrass. Ms. Weldon wanted to correct some "gross misrepresentations of what goes on at our farm" and felt she needed to tell her side of the story.

Ms. Weldon noted that they own and operate a certified organic farm on 16 acres of land off Marion Road (Route 6). "There's been a lot of questions and comments about our cranberry bog, which is about 2.1 acres," she said. "It is one of only three certified organic bogs in Massachusetts. There's nothing odd about our bog ... we dug out two ponds to collect water and recycle it."

Ms. Weldon explained that the water is used for irrigation, for winter protection (to prevent freezing), and to control potential pests by literally flooding them from the produce. An upper pond is used to store the bulk of the water and it is drained into the lower pond area as

Despite her neighbor's complaints, Ms. Weldon stressed that everything on her farm is in "complete compliance with state law" and has been reviewed and approved by the Mattapoisett Conservation Commission (ConCom), the Department of Food and Agriculture, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), and the State Attorney General's office.

"We did not do this alone ... our plan before and now has been reviewed and approved by the (Mattapoisett) ConCom," Ms. Weldon said.

The only other matter under question was Spring Meadow Farm being advertised as a "Bed and Breakfast," a point addressed by both Building Inspector Andrew Bobola and Town Counsel Daniel C. Perry in separate letters. Mr. Bobola advised that "before a Bed and Breakfast can be operated, certain building code requirements pertaining to emergency exits, exit lights, fire extinguishers, etc. must be met and to date I have not received a Building Permit for this activity."

Town Counsel Perry advised: "The (Mattapoisett) Zoning By-Law authorized as a permitted use in a RR-30 District, 'renting of rooms for not more than two (2) persons in a dwelling regularly occupied for residential purposes, provided no signs are displayed.' Although the original intent of this language probably was to permit 'boarders' and not overnight transient guests, I do not believe that a court would prohibit a bed and breakfast operation that was limited to two guests per night, and

The board thanked Ms. Weldon and Mr. Belanger for coming in to tell their side of the story. "We'll have to set down some guidelines for future meetings," Selectman Denham said. "This shouldn't be a public forum to air neighbor complaints."

At 7:30 pm the board met with the Board of Assessors to hold their Annual Tax Classification Hearing to determine whether Mattapoisett should retain a single tax rate for residential and commercial property, or go with a two-tier tax system, setting different tax rates for each group.

"Our feeling is if we recommended a two-tier tax system, we would be penalizing the (year-round) and summer residents of Mattapoisett," said Assessor Michael O'Brien. "In larger communities with more commercial property, it makes sense. Here it doesn't make any sense."

Selectman Denham agreed, adding that most of the business owners in Mattapoisett are also home owners in town. "If you were to lower their business tax, you'd increase their residential," he said.

With that, the board unanimously voted to maintain a single tax classification rate for both residential and commercial property in Mattapoisett for fiscal year 2001 upon a recommendation from the Board of Assessors.

Mr. O'Brien said the final figures are still being calculated, but the tax rate for this year will be between $14.26 and $15.94 — two recent years' assessments. A final rate should be announced within two weeks.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:45 pm.

"I'd like to note the help of Bernadette Taber and John Rockwell who were both instrumental in putting the grant application together," Mr. Pickles said. "I'll be applying for one more grant to remove the last three underground fuel storage tanks at the Housing for the Elderly ... which won't be awarded until after January 1. The town would be best-served if we get rid of all the underground tanks."

Mr. Pickles noted the letter has been forwarded to Police Chief Lincoln Miller and he will increase the "police presence" in the area and set-up the radar sign on this and other town roads. "It's nice that a young person would take the time to offer their concern," Selectman Schaefer said.

• Request from Russell E. Holmes, owner of 6 County Road, asking that his property be included in the alternative system proposed for the "Berry Patch" properties recently discussed as the September 12 Board of Selectmen's meeting. Selectman Schaefer didn't see any problem with this addition and informed Mr. Pickles who would be meeting with project coordinator Susan Peterson later in the week.

Let our commercial checking accounts work for your business.

Plymouth Savings Bank offers two commercial checking accounts - each designed to return more savings to your company. The choice is yours: select the one that will provide the best return for your firm:

Excellerate Commercial Sweep Account - This account provides high rates of return on qualified balances. The concept is simple: a fixed amount of money is maintained in your business checking account to cover operating costs. Anything above the threshold is swept into the mutual fund of your choice where it has an opportunity to grow. Your cash remains available while it is generating the higher rates of return associated with mutual funds.

Commercial Checking Account - Tired of paying high commercial DDA fees at your current bank? Our Commercial Checking Account offers low fees, immediate credit on deposits and a monthly earnings credit that partially, or often totally, offsets any fees assessed during the month.

Free Analysis - Drop by any Plymouth Savings Bank and ask a branch manager to provide a free analysis of how our commercial checking account products can benefit your business. Or call us at (800) 649-3330 for more information.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

October 2, 2000

By Rebecca Fortin

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectman was called to order on Monday, October 2 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Naida Parker. Also present were Selectman Richard Cutler, Selectman Patricia Ryan, Town Administrator James Huntoon, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere.

The first appointment on the agenda was with Albert Teufel, Manager of VeriZon of New England, Inc. who came before the board to petition for an underground conduit to be placed on Hartley Road. He explained that the work is necessary to provide new telecommunication facilities for growth and maintenance. Selectman Ryan inquired about the possibility of adding landscaping around the structure, and Mr. Teufel agreed that could be added. The board unanimously agreed to add the conduit as requested.

SRPEDD Commissioner Susan Peterson came before the board next to suggest that the Board of Selectman and the Planning Board pool their twenty hours each of municipal time (provided by SRPEDD) for a total of 40 hours. She added that there are several categories that SRPEDD can assist in, and the category that Ms. Peterson suggested that the town study is the economic development planning.

us," said Ms. Peterson. Selectman Cutler pointed out that there is a recently-appointed Economic Development Commission, and that perhaps Ms. Peterson should speak to those on the commission.

"Forty hours seems like a lot," said Selectman Cutler, "but it can go quickly."

Ms. Peterson agreed: "A week isn't much, but it can get us started."

The board agreed that Ms. Peterson should contact the new Economic Development Commission, draft a proposal for SRPEDD to pool the hours, and then let the board pass the request onto the Planning Board for their acceptance of the proposal, and then submit it to SRPEDD.

The final appointment on the agenda was with Town Treasurer John Hall who is also the town's MBTA representative. He explained that the MBTA Advisory Board had held its first official meeting of the newly-constituted board last week. Mr. Hall said that the purpose of this meeting was to educate and inform new members about the role and powers of the Advisory Board. He said that there was some discussion at the meeting regarding the commuter rail service, and he hopes with his presence that "hopefully we will have a voice somewhere."

"We appreciated you representing us," noted Chairman Parker.

Next, the board approved and signed for a new street name, Wamsutta Lane, to appear in a new subdivision.

Next, the board signed the warrant for the Special Town Meeting, which will be held on Monday, October 23. The board agreed to add all but two articles, pertaining to back lot subdivisions and major residential development issues. Neither article reached the board before the deadline, and therefore, they were not inclined to include them on the warrant.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Huntoon discussed the ongoing excavation on Dexter Lane for the new Police/Communications building. He said that while it is continuing, at the moment they are having to wait until an electrician can come to the property to move a control panel, which he said will happen this week. There is concern that without a Clerk of the Works overseeing the work being done, that over-excavating could become an issue.

"If they over-excavate it and fill it back up how will we know they compacted it or filled it at all?" asked Selectman Cutler. The board agreed that until there is a Clerk of the Works there full-time, that periodic, surprise

The board then went on to review the following incoming correspondence for the week:

• A letter was received from SouthCoast Hospitals Group expressing their support for the Town of Rochester's request for funding to establish a paramedic services program. Chairman Parker suggested that the board send a letter of appreciation for the paramedic services, the training of which, will be supported by SouthCoast Hospitals Group.

• A letter was received from the Department of Housing and Community Development, which anticipates awarding $2,000,000 in the Soft Second Loan Program (SSLP) funds during this funding round. The SSLP supports programs to increase affordable housing opportunities for low- and moderate-income first-time homebuyers.

• The board received a retirement notice from Veteran Agent Harvey J. Blanchette, to become effective November 11, 2000.

• Notice was received that the signing of the "New Mayflower Compact" will be held on October 25 sponsored by the Vision 2020 Task Force.

Under Old Business, Selectman Cutler said that he had reviewed the proposed cell tower by-law.

With no further matters to discuss, the board unanimously agreed to adjourn for the evening at 9:00

ORR AP Scholars Named

Two students at Old Rochester Regional High School have been named AP Scholars by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level AP examinations. Only about 13 percent of the more than 700,000 students who took the AP examinations in May, 2000 performed at a sufficiently-high level to merit such recognition.

Students take the AP Examinations in May after completing challenging college-level courses at their high school. The College Board recognizes several levels of achievement based on the number of year-long courses at ORR.

Two students qualified for the AP Scholar Award by completing three or more AP Examinations, with

PARASITES

I see these small worms under my cat's tail. What are they?

There are two types of intestinal parasites which are large enough to be visible to the naked eye, tapeworms and roundworms. Tapeworms are off-white in color and are usually the size of a grain of rice. They are spread to your pet by fleas. Another type of tapeworm is long, flat and somewhat serrated in appearance. Roundworms are common in kittens and puppies and look like spaghetti. See your veterinarian when you find worms and describe your findings. Often tapeworms eggs do not show up on routine fecal tests.

Volunteers Needed in Acushnet

The Fairhaven-Acushnet Land Preservation Trust is looking for volunteers to do selective pruning at its Hamlin Street Mill Site (White's Factory) on Saturday, October 14 at 8:00 am. Under the direction of landscaper Charles Dupont, volunteers will work to cut back some of the bittersweet vine that has overgrown the historic ruin. Please help them start to uncover this beautiful old historically-significant structure. The mill site is located on the southwest side of Hamlin Street in Acushnet where the Acushnet River flows under the road. Please bring pruning or lopping shears and work gloves if you have them. Hot mulled cider and refreshments will be served. Please call Laurell J. Farinon, President, at 763-3871 with any questions.

The White's Factory on Hamlin Street (formerly known as White's Factory Road) was built in 1799 by William White on a site where a sawmill formerly stood. In 1778 a dam had been built providing unlimited water power. The mill was one of the earliest cotton mills in the country, manufacturing both cotton and woolen goods. It soon developed into a busy, thriving place. One of the men who had an interest in the mill was Captain Whelden, who later went on to build his own mill.

The original mill is believed to have burned in 1830 and was rebuilt in 1831. The business continued until 1844, when it was sold and converted to steam. The White

Individuals and organizations may apply for general support — projects such as workshops, lectures, exhibits, festivals, science education and artist projects — or for PASS funding to enable schools and youth groups to take students, pre-K through 12, to cultural performances outside of school. Grants are awarded after considering the benefit to the community, the qualifications of individuals and organizations involved, the planning process, the community interest and involvement, and the population segments served. at the Rochester Town Hall, the Joseph H. Plumb Memorial Library, or online at www.massculturalcouncil.org. Completed forms must be delivered with a valid postmark by October 15 at the Rochester Town hall. For more information, please contact Chairman Kate Tarleton at 763-5816. Past projects have included Friends of the Joseph H. Plumb Library: printing and publication of the Rochester Journal, Volume II; Rochester Memorial School: tickets for various plays at the Zeiterion Theater (PASS Program); and Mr. John Root: Senior Citizen concert.

Each community's allocation from the MCC is determined using a local aid formula. Local councils are run by municipally appointed community volunteers who evaluate applications once a year based on local needs and interest.

Marion Cultural Council

Applications are now being accepted by the Marion Cultural Council for arts, humanities, and interpretive science projects taking place during the 2000 calendar year. Individuals and organizations wishing to apply have until October 15 to submit applications for either general funding or PASS funding. PASS is a program designed to send local students (K-12) to performances, museums, and other cultural events outside of school.

The Local Cultural Council Program, part of the Massachusetts Cultural Council (MCC), provides a vehicle for stimulating the arts, humanities, and interpretive sciences at the "grassroots" level, where support from more traditional sources like the National Endowment for the Arts, and other funding programs of the MCC tends to be more difficult to obtain. Although the monies involved are drawn from proceeds of the state lottery and overseen by the MCC in Boston, basic responsibility for allocating resources is given to local cultural councils.

The Marion Cultural Council uses the following criteria in evaluating grant proposals:

• Applications which provide programs directly to the citizens of Marion will be considered first. Out-of-town applications will not be excluded, but will be considered after those that directly benefit Marion residents.

• It is the intention of the Marion Cultural Council to touch as large a percentage of the population as possible with each event. Therefore, events which benefit a significant number of residents wil be considered before those that benefit only a few.

• Applicants must document that the site they have chosen conforms to all state requirements for handicapped accessibility.

According to state guidelines, the applicant must have been engaged in the kind of activity for which they are applying for at least one year, and individual artists must be able to demonstrate their commitment by the previous sale or exhibit of their works and be prepared to show the council their portfolio.

Applications and detailed guidelines for both PASS and regular funding are available at the Elizabeth Taber Library, 8 Spring Street in Marion, or from any council member.

Mattapoisett Disaster Simulation

The time of the simulation will be at 7:30 pm on Friday, October 13, 2000. Please volunteer, as an exercise such as this is only as good as you make it. For more information, please call Pat Arruda at 758-2512.

Lennon Tribute in New Bedford

The Fab Four, a Beatles tribute band, will be performing on Monday, October 9 for the Annual John Lennon Birthday Tribute at Jokers Night Club, 3057 Acushnet Avenue in New Bedford. The group will present an amazing Beatles portrayal that recalls the thrill of a real Beatles concert with meticulous attention to detail — from their mop-top haircuts to their Liverpool accents and mannerisms. By using the same '60s style musical equipment as the Beatles, The Fab Four recreate the look and sound of the Beatles.

The concert will take place from 7:00 pm to 12:00 midnight and tickets are $10 and will be available at the door. The Fab Four will perform one set dressed in early Beatles costumes and complete the program in later Beatles attire through the Let It Be era with John Lennon wearing his white suit.

Having toured the U.S. with stops in Colorado, West Virginia, and Florida, the Fab Four will be performing in Rosa Rita, Mexico and then return to Massachusetts for the John Lennon Tribute. The event celebrating the life and work and the great musical artist John Lennon is being promoted this year by EncorENTERTAINMENT and is present on John Lennon's birthday. The Fab Four's Peter Gendron as John Lennon bears an uncanny resemblance to John both visually and vocally.

Also included on the billing are area favorites Jack Jennings, Louis Leeman, and their friends and surprise guests. A portion of the proceeds from the concert is being donated to the Neediest Family Fund in cooperation with The Standard-Times. The John Lennon Birthday Tribute is an opportunity to remember John and his music and enjoy renditions of his songs performed by talented musicians inspired by his life and work.

Mattapoisett Friends Auction

After Jean Lussier survived a ride over Niagara Falls in a rubberized ball on July 4, 1928, he had several real photo postcards made up to mark the dramatic event. Three different postcards, each one autographed by the daredevil, will be among the 450 lots of eclectic paper collectibles to be sold at auction on October 21 at the Mattapoisett Friends Meeting (Quaker), 103 Marion, Road, East Mattapoisett.

Most of the sale proceeds will benefit the church. More than a dozen lots will be sold to benefit land trusts serving Marion, Fairhaven, Acushnet, Rochester and Mattapoisett. This is the twelfth such auction staged by the Friends.

The lots include foreign and domestic postcards, trade cards, stampless folded letters, whaling and war material, Cape Cod commercial fishing ephemera from the 19th century, stocks, bonds, stamps an dcovers, McLoughlin Brothers children's books, cranberry items, historical paper from SouthCoast communities, rare books, and a wide variety of other paper collectibles including one-of-a-kind items rarely seen.

The sale, with Dennis Broadbent of Acushnet serving as auctioneer, will begin at 9:00 am on October 21 and last about three-and-a-half hours. Viewing will take place from 6:00 to 9:00 pm on Friday, October 20 and from 7:00 to 9:00 am on the day of the sale.

There are no reserves on any of the lots and no buyers' premium is charged. Previous sales have attracted bidders from throughout the northeast and on two occasions in the past, a bidder has attended from Texas. Don't miss this important sale! For more information, please call 758-3579.

Marion Health Reminder

The Marion Board of Health Town Nurse would like to remind residents that Lyme disease is prevalent in our area. This is just to remind people that there are ways you can help yourself avoid this disease. The disease is transmitted to humans from infected deer ticks. There are ways to reduce your risk of being exposed to the disease carrying ticks:

• Clear brush and tall grass from around your house;

• Wear light-colored, long sleeves and long pants when outside. The light colors allow you to see the tick more easily. Tuck your pant legs into your socks so there are no gaps around the ankles;

• Use insect repellant on clothing and any exposed skin;

• Inspect your body regularly.

Symptoms that may mark the early stages of Lyme disease are: fatigue, chills and fever, headache, muscle and joint pain, and swollen lymph nodes. Also, a characteristic bull's eye rash appearing 3 to 30 days after being infected may be present, however, not everyone will have all of these symptoms. If you have any of these symptoms, please consult a physician. Patients treated early recover rapidly and completely.

For more information about Lyme Disease, please check the World Wide Web at http://www.acponline.org/lyme/patient.

Marion Art Center

New Exhibit

A new two-person exhibit featuring work by Anne Lyman Powers and Gail Taylor is now on display at the Marion Art Center. The brilliantly colorful oil paintings by Powers and unique mixed media images of fall by Taylor compliment one another for an exciting autumn show.

Anne Lyman Powers currently resides in Wellesley, MA and studied painting and sculpture at the Winsor School, Vassar College, Columbia University, and the Boston Museum School. She taught at the Museum School and at Wellesley College as well as private classes. Her numerous exhibitions include: the Boris Mirski Gallery, Boston; Duxbury Art Complex Museum; Downtown Gallery, NYC; Main Street Gallery, Nantucket; Digital Corporation; and the Cambridge Art Association National Competition, just to mention a few.

Her work is represented extensively in private collections throughout the United States and Europe: First National Bank, Boston; Harvard Trust Company; Freestone Library, Princeton University; Boston Public Library; The Boston Globe; St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and others. She works in watercolor, oil and etching.

"The succession of styles of painting in recent years has been fascinating — with many imaginative and wonderful ideas," Ms. Powers said. "I learn from them all the time and absorb influences as I go along. But I always come back to painting which has recognizable, realistic subject matter — but a subject matter with two aspects: topics and the object ... which is the work of art no matter what form: composition, color relationships, and texture." Her large landscapes and intimate still lifes reflect these qualities elegantly.

Gail Taylor is a native of Massachusetts and has significant schooling in the arts. Her career moved her to California in 1971 where she established her work in several galleries and museums. The Exorcist.* Starring Ellen Burstyn, Linda Blair, and Max von Sydow. Directed by William Friedkin. Running time: 132 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall and Flagship Cinemas in New Bedford.

Those who've only seen The Exorcist on video – or, Satan forbid, on network television – may, like me, gain a greater appreciation for the film in its new beefed-up theatrical release, where its bigger-than-life horrors and chaotic sound design can envelop you. My mother was among the many moviegoers who, in 1973, took the Exorcist ride and never got over it; only recently was she able to brave it again (in diluted form, on TV). After years of my mother's fearful build-up, The Exorcist struck me as more silly than scary when I was finally old enough to see it, and perhaps the film's rep as "the scariest movie of all time" might lead to the same jaded reaction from younger audiences who see it now for the first time.

About halfway through this refurbished Exorcist – which I probably hadn't seen in its entirety in well over a decade – I realized why I was appreciating it on a deeper level. The Exorcist, you see, is not a horror movie. It doesn't belong in the same class as Cheez Whiz like The Omen or the more recent Stigmata, two other religious-dread flicks. No, these days I read it more as a drama with supernatural underpinnings. It unfolds slowly – perhaps, for today's audience, too slowly – fleshing out the humans who will soon do battle with a demon. Director William Friedkin's style is unhurried and decidedly unflashy except for the moments of terror; he establishes a glum, banal reality, then violates it, cruelly, in a way that makes us feel the pain and fear of everyone trying to deal with the madness.

Some bits are still cringe-inducing. I still think Friedkin and screenwriter-producer William Peter Blatty (adapting his own bestseller) overemphasized the cuddly-cute innocence of Regan MacNeil (Linda Blair); the contrast between the normal girl and the possessed girl didn't need to be that severe. Ellen Burstyn's Chris MacNeil, delirious with frustration and powerless rage over what's happening to her daughter, can get on your nerves after a while – but I came to see that as a form of integrity. Burstyn doesn't care whether we like her; she stays in character as a flawed but decent woman cracking under the strain of the unspeakable.

Overall, the movie remains a superbly designed machine (though in form only; those who have called the film "impersonal" may not remember the painfully compassionate subplot dealing with Jason Miller's depressed priest and his failing mother).

But is this new Exorcist – with its added footage, its sweetened sound mix, and its handful of jarring new subliminal images – a travesty or an improvement? I wouldn't call it a travesty – the film entire remains intact, the 121-minute cut you know and love; nothing has been deleted – but it isn't an improvement, either.

The newly dusted-off scenes – originally trimmed by Friedkin to whittle the film down to two hours – don't amount to much: the two priests having a brief conference on the stairs outside Regan's room; a bit showing Regan's early visit to a doctor; the infamous "spider-walk" sequence, more freaky than scary. The most needless addition is a bit of chat at the end between a priest and a detective, which is meant to echo an earlier conversation. These new/old bits don't trash the movie (though they overdid the new subliminals a bit), nor do they enhance it.

My biggest gripe with Exorcist Version 2.0 is, oddly, the way it sounds now. Yes, the sound effects have been intensified, often to the film's benefit – an abruptly ringing phone sounds as if it's sitting on your shoulder; the flying debris in Regan's bedroom patters and smashes around your head. For those who've only seen the film in mono sound (as it was first released), it's a real ear-opener.

However, Friedkin has also seen fit to underline many scenes – even simple, non-shocking dialogue sequences – with ominously swelling, deep-chord music cues. This gravely alters the movie's tone, in ways subtle and obvious. Part of what freaked people out about The Exorcist was its contrast between the naturalistic and the supernatural – between deceptively calm moments and loud, crashing horror. The movie's eerie quietude is gone, replaced by a generic "This scene might be boring and talky, but scary stuff is coming up" horror-movie soundtrack.

The Exorcist is jolting and scarifying in either version. But the version hailed as a great achievement in supernatural cinema, or "the scariest movie of all time," is available on DVD in its original form, with much of the deleted footage included as a supplement. I plan to buy that soon. I don't plan to buy the new one.

Fall Classes

Several new teachers have joined the Marion Art Cetner faculty this fall. Marilyn Brown returns as music instructor for three- and four-year-olds. She holds an MA in piano pedagogy and has been teaching privately in her studio for many years. The Harmony Road music course will be offered on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, 9:45 to 10:30 am and 10:30 to 11:15 am. Children will be accompanied by an adult. Harmony Road materials focus on the whole child — hearing, feeling, moving, singing, creating, sharing, reading, and playing music — to help children discover "Music in Me." Places are still available in the 12-week session.

Thanks to the energy of Lynne Parks Kuhl, a full range of art classes for children has been created. Lynne, a winner of the 1984 Butterfield Scholarship at the Marion Art Center, is a graduate of the the Maryland Institute of Art. She has taught children's art classes in Europe and most recently taught two sold-out classes this past summer at the MAC. This far, Art for Three- and Four-Year-Olds will be offered on Monday, 10:00 to 11:00 am. Due to demand, this class will be offered on Thursday at the same time. There will be lots of painting, printing, collage, and sculpture. Lisa Baltz will teach the Thursday classes. Lisa is a graduate of Wesleyan University and has a Masters Degree in Art and Literature. She taught elementary art in Charleston, SC for five years and was nominated "Teacher of the Year" in 1997. There are a few places left in these classes.

"Seasonal Studio Crafts" for children ages three to five will be offered on Friday, 9:00 to 10:00 am and will focus on hand-on process-oriented activities like leaf prints, harvest wreaths, glitter globes, and more. The class meets every other week with Glenna Sanford instructing. Glenna is a faculty member at Bristol Community College. She is co-author with Susan Kennedy Branagan of a guide to creating original gifts. This class will be offered in the afternoons as well from 1:00 to 2:00 pm with Ms. Branagan instructing the afternoon group on alternate Fridays. Susan is part-owner, lead floral designer and craft coordinator of Bittersweet of Mattapoisett. Susan's experience includes extensive custom work for clients throughout New England. There will be five classes in all. Parents may choose morning or afternoon, depending on their schedule.

Arts and Crafts Classes will be offered on Saturday morning, 9:45 to 10:45 am for Grades 1 to 3 with

INNER VIEWS

Must-See TV?

BY KENNETH J. SOUZA
MOVIES@WANDERER.COM

Here we are on the threshold of another "must see" television season, and I have to say I'm left utterly unimpressed ... standing cold and alone outside the prime-time window looking in. Granted, I've never been much of a TV junkie, per se — I spend most of my at-home viewing time catching up on full-length feature films, both past and present. I simply prefer watching a complete, unedited, uninterrupted production in all its widescreen, theatrical splendor over an episodic, poorly-penned sitcom with annoying canned laughter and ill-timed audience applause.

Television has offered little enticement to me over the years, and the allure of sitting down the same time every week to catch the latest episode of any given series has lessened exponentially with time. Sure, there have been some truly innovative and ground-breaking shows which hooked me from the get-go ... but most of them have since faded into oblivion.

Consistently clever programming like *M*A*S*H, Cheers* and Seinfeld have all taken their final bows. Peter Falk's bravura Columbo no longer has the acerbic wit of its heyday ... and great "quirky" shows like Northern Exposure and David Lynch's Twin Peaks (both of which paved the way for the now-repetitious The X-Files), couldn't sustain audience expectations on a weekly basis and were subsequently cancelled.

With the exception of the usual batch of "informational" programming like news broadcasts and entertainment updates, there are really only a handful of current shows which I go out of my way to watch faithfully these days. In looking over this short, concise list, I can see a trend where my own personal tastes in horror and comedy tend to prevail. But I also think these shows stand apart from the bulk of the dredge which is being pumped into American living rooms every week in that they all boast a certain level of intelligence and wit — two key ingredients which have been lost in a bland mix of "inoffensive" and "wholesome" programming.

For my money, and in no given order of preference, these are the shows still worth watching, taping, and then watching again:

• Buffy the Vampire Slayer (WB) - I can hear the snickers and guffaws spitting into the page now. Yet for the past five seasons, this "little" show under the skilled guidance of creator Joss Whedon (who wrote the original but less effective theatrical film) has remained one of the best-crafted series on television: from impressive special effects, to clever plot twists, to a delicate balance of horror and comedy, to realistic and credible characters, this show has it all in spades ... or should I say stakes?

• The Simpsons (Fox) - This is the longest-running prime-time animated series for a reason: it's still as fresh, sharp, and mercilessly satirical as when it first debuted a decade ago. It swiftly surpassed its own hype — remember Bart's overused catch phrases and omnipresent t-shirt designs? — to carve itself a familiar niche in the American consciousness ... and Homer Simpson has easily supplanted all of his TV predecessors as the greatest comic anti-hero ever.

• Late Night with Conan O'Brien (NBC) - Our own Irish lad from Massachusetts has done the Commonwealth proud in finding just the right blend of silly Lettermanesque routines (most of which Dave no longer "stoops" to) and wide-eyed, starstruck interview segments (Conan could easily pass for just another fan interviewing his idols). Whereas Jay Leno has become a watered-down version of his former self, and David Letterman walks the fine line between crass and clever, Conan just steps up to the plate and starts swinging ... and he usually hits more than a few out of the park. Even without longtime sidekick Andy Richter, Conan is still smartly funny.

• Whose Line Is It Anyway? (ABC) – Not surprisingly, another "borrowed" idea from Britain has tickled the slapstick-prone American funny bone. Much of its success is due to the guidance of geek-guru Drew Carey (whose own show qualifies for consideration), but the real stars here are the rotating quartet of fast-thinking funnymen (and an occasional funny*woman)* who have to improvise whatever comes their way. The series standout remains Wayne Brady, who can sing and dance as well as he spouts jokes and affects dead-on celebrity impersonations.

• That '70s Show (Fox) – I have to admit to being a recent convert and something of a latecomer to this solid bit of retro situation comedy ... but every episode I've seen has been both amusing and honest and like Richard Linklater's brilliant film Dazed and Confused (which I think partly inspired the show) it perfectly captures the era in which polyester and disco shared the limelight. The show is worth watching solely for character actor Kurtwood Smith who not only resembles every middle-class American father I've ever met, but acts and talks like them too.

AVOID UNDERPRICING

If you want to sell your house fast, underprice it. Sounds like silly advice -- it is. Selling for less than market value will lose you thousands of dollars that could help pay for the cost of relocation and purchase of a new home.

No one would choose to make a sacrifice of this kind. But it can seem necessary when a sudden job transfer compresses the home selling process into too short a time. However, a hasty decision can be avoided if you use the services of our agency to show and sell the property in your absence.

If you must move out before the house is sold, we'll use our ingenuity and resources to maintain its attractiveness during the selling process. Arrangements can be made to see the yard as well as the house itself are kept in good condition. If necessary, we can even arrange for the rental and placement of furnishings to enhance the property.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). You're an independent type, but the lesson is to get along with others. A rush order at work dominates. It could thwart your travel plans, too.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). A financial deal you're working on is loaded with variables. You can make a killing at this, but only if you know what you're doing. In other words, only gamble on a sure thing.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Everybody's trying to tell you what to do. A friend from far away gives you the information you need, however.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). You might make a profitable trade. Be willing to get rid of something you don't use anymore. You can see what needs to be cut.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). You're most interested in your social life. Work interferes with your pleasure. You could make a good connection, but try not to spend too much money.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You may feel like you're stuck between a rock and a hard place. The overall outcome looks positive. Don't be intimidated.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Travel is confusing. You can make it through, but probably not without white knuckles. The overall outcome's positive, too.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Pass on a great deal that a friend tells you about. Spend the money on your home, instead. Stock up.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Your presentation of a new idea gets nothing but arguments. Don't be dissuaded.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You're getting mixed messages concerning work. That might be due to changes happening there.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Offer a friend your shoulder to cry on. He or she is going through a confusing metamorphosis. From where you're standing, the answers look simple.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). You're in the middle of the activity. Everybody is sure pushing their own agenda. Be the moderator.

SouthCoast Music Foundation

The SouthCoast Music Foundation was established in 1991 as a 501-C3 non-profit organization. It evolved from many years of professional work by Richard W. Mitchell, president and co-founder of the organization.

In 1991, Mr. Mitchell, a guidance counselor at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School with ten years' experience at the school, voluntarily established a Peer Leadership Program at Old Colony. The success of this program encouraged Mr. Mitchell to collaborate with the school's Health Coordinator and other school groups in sponsoring a variety of substance-free student activities. Many of these activities have had a music performance component.

Words of Wisdom

If you believe in an ideal, you don't own it, it owns you.

The more you reason the less you create.

A good story cannot be devised; it has to be distilled.

Success is often achieved by those who don't know that failure is inevitable.

Those who create are rare; those who cannot are numerous. Therefore, the latter are stronger.

There are some people who leave impressions not so lasting as the imprint of an oar upon the water.

Although not specifically trained in music therapy, Mr. Mitchell acknowledges the great therapeutic value of music performance. In particular, he cites significant social-emotional gains by students involved in musical productions at Old Colony (i.e. Talent Show, Lock-In, and Field Day). A number of these students, he notes, have never been involved in extra-curricular activities.

Aiming to build upon these successes, Mr. Mitchell and several associates created the SouthCoast Music Foundation. Its Mission Statement is as follows:

The SouthCoast Music Foundation is established as a partnership of diverse community members. Our purpose is to develop and support a music learning/performance center. The Center will function as both a high school and community center. Its goal is to offer challenging academics in a creative environment, built around the themes of music, community service, and entrepreneurship.

For the past year and a half, the organization has been providing rehearsal space for a network of young musicians from Mattapoisett, Rochester, Acushnet, Fairhaven, and New Bedford, as well as developing community support for the endeavor. Ongoing support has been provided by Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School (sound equipment and rehearsal space), the Mattapoisett Congregational Church (rehearsal space), and the Mayflower Masonic Lodge (soda and juice).

The organization has also received grants from the Community Building Mini-Grants Program and from the Plymouth County District Attorney. In addition, the group has assisted the Mattapoisett Police Officers' Association with their fund-raising efforts for construction of a skate park.

Because the ultimate objective of the SouthCoast Music Foundation is to develop and support an alternative high school program, discussions have been opened with school leaders at both Old Colony and the Old Rochester Regional School District.

to announce their 86th season concert series. With an emphasis on the passionate composing of Tchaikovsky, the symphony has lined up a stunning musical program with International Tchaikovsky Competition Winners to perform with the symphony at all three classic concerts. Dr. F. John Adams, Music Director, is "particularly excited about the Tchaikovsky Competition connection." He has never heard of any orchestra in the world having more than one, let alone three, winners in the same season. And therefore, "it is not likely that concert-goers will ever have this opportunity again in their lives. This is a season not to be missed!"

The Spring Concert on March 31, 2001 will present Portuguese-American gold medal violinist Elmar

Since its beginning 39 years ago, it has grown in popularity and prestige among the world's young musicians. Participation has more than doubled each year and additional categories for cello and voice have been added.

The competitions are a forum for musicians of different ages and nationalities to exchange experiences and represents an opportunity for young competitors from around the world to polish their skills and challenge the high artistic standards and traditions set by their venerable predecessors. The high level of the competition is evident by the many past laureates who went on to great careers as world-class musicians in classical music after winning the laurels in Moscow, such as the well-known names of Van Cliburn, Vladimir Ashkenazi, Misha Dichter, John Lill, Gideon Kremer, Nathaniel Rosen, and Elmar Oliveira.

The New Bedford Symphony Orchestra's concerts are held at the Zeiterion Theater, 684 Purchase Street, New Bedford at 8:00 pm. Subscription tickets are still available and may be purchased either through the Symphony office (999-6276) or at the Zeiterion Box Office (994-2900). Subscription prices (10 percent off single ticket price) are as follows: for the three classical concerts - $68, $54, and $40; for the four-concert series, including the annual favorite Holiday Pops Concert - $90, $72, and $54. Individual tickets for single concerts are $25, $20, $25, and $10 for students. For more information, please call the NBSO office to speak with Exeuctive Director Laurie Bullard. Again this year, the Symphony is offering a collection of compact discs of music to be played in the 2000-2001 season. These CDs are aimed at enhancing concert-goers' listening experience and allowing them to familiarize, refresh, and review the music to be performed. The four-disk set is available through the Symphony office for $32 and will be available for purchase the evenings of the concerts.
